

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Rosanne Coty (nee Burger) has been a parishioner of Saint Robert for over 16 years. She earned a Bachelor of Fine Art degree from Aquinas College, and an Associate of Fine Art degree from Kendall College of Art and Design. Former art occupation includes Perrigo, Amway, and H. H. Cutler Company. At Cutler, she designed apparel for children, utilizing Disney licensed art, and original art. More recently, she has worked from home as an artist and designer. Mrs. Coty has been recognized for her work in Scholastic Art Competitions, Society of Illustrators Competition and Grand Rapids Festival of the Arts. She actively collaborates with various Michigan organizations including Girl Scouts, AYSO, the Scleroderma Foundation, and the Forest Hills Robotics Team. Commissioned art has included murals for the Parade of Homes, various businesses, and private homes. For Saint Robert Church, she has worked with various groups and created set and prop design for children choir productions of Music Machine, Creation, Pirates of the 'I Don't Care'-ibbean, and the adult choir production of Joseph, and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Rosanne and her husband, Matt, have been married for over 19 years. The couple are proud parents of Danielle, Gabriella, Isabella, and Angela (deceased). Rosanne and Matt, and their daughters, have taught and aided Faith Formation classes. You may contact her at zan-art@hotmail.com